

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CHASE C. HARTUNG,

Defendant.

4:24CR3017

ORDER

Defendant has moved to continue the telephone conference (Filing No. 40), because defense counsel has a scheduling conflict and Defendant has new counsel who needs time to familiarize himself with the case. The motion to continue is unopposed. Based on the showing set forth in the motion, the court finds good cause has been shown and the motion is granted. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) Defendant's motion to continue, (Filing No. 40), is granted.
- 2) The conference call previously scheduled to be held on October 16, 2024, is continued. A telephonic conference with counsel will be held before the undersigned magistrate judge at 10:30 a.m. on October 30, 2024 to discuss setting any change of plea hearing, or the date of the jury trial and deadlines for disclosing experts as required under Rule 16. Counsel for all parties shall use the conferencing instructions provided by the court to participate in the call.
- 3) The court finds that the ends of justice served by granting the motion to continue outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial, and the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion. For these reasons and with the consent of the parties, the time between today's date and October 30, 2024 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, because although counsel have been duly diligent, additional time is needed to adequately prepare this case for trial and failing to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1) & (h)(7). Failing to timely object to this order as provided under this court's local rules will be deemed a waiver of any right to later claim the time should not have been excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

Dated this 16th day of October, 2024.
